On Monday, March 28, 1960, God summoned William Claude "W.C." and Verma Walker to Hurley Hospital in Flint, Michigan and presented them a beautiful bundle of joy, Debra Maxine. In the company of her older sisters, Gloria and Brenda, the three shared rich childhood experiences. Soon, the sisters were bored with each other so their parents presented them a brother, named after their dad and affectionately called Junior. The family loved each other and had so much fun. Next, Darlene arrived. They achieved balance when three additional brothers, Keith, Wayne and Deron (Melissa) arrived. The family was now complete.

Debbie joined and was baptized at Vernon Chapel A.M.E. Church at a young age. Gundry Elementary School provided the educational foundation for her life. She later attended Holmes Jr. High School and graduated from Flint Northwestern High School in 1978.

The death of Debbie's father on her birthday in 1985 deeply impacted her life. Debbie worked hard and later moved from Flint to Grand Prairie, TX and Atlanta, GA where she and her sister, Darlene, established a wonderful home. It was the source of much laughter and fun for friends and family. During her time in Atlanta, Debbie established strong bonds with very close friends who became a second family to her. Her special, lifelong friendship with Joey Bryant served as a source of encouragement and enlightenment. She also shared a special bond with Cynthia Hare. Many family friends, including Mr. Jim Graham, Phyllis Ursery, and Andre Artis and family, provided much love and support. She enjoyed traveling and visiting new places. She absolutely loved all her cousins and extended family.

On Saturday, May 3, 2018, God called her home. Debbie is preceded in death by her father, William Claude "W.C." Walker, her loving grandparents; Andrew Walker, Essie Singleton "Lil' Momma", Essie Register "Big Momma", and Sylvester Register, and a host of aunts and uncles. She leaves to cherish precious and unforgettable memories her mother, Verma Walker; brothers and sisters, along with her beloved nieces, nephews, and great-nieces – LaDeana (Derrin) Rawls, Larry O'Neal, LaLonda O'Neal, LaWanna O'Neal, Shaylonda Strong, Danielle Strong, Darrius Strong, De'Andrea O'Neal, Aalaya O'Neal, SaMaria O'Neal, Aalisha O'Neal, Alazae O'Neal and Gabriella Strong.

The family would like to thank God for blessing them and allowing their lives to be touched by His angel, Debra Maxine. Special thanks to her brother, Wayne Walker and nephew, Larry O'Neal for being excellent caregivers.
