“ *To Mother Quilla, Debra, Will-Lee and LaKay my heart is with you thru the loss of Della Mae. we all know that nothing went wrong, because God said in his word this place is not our Home. we've all shared many laughs with her and now it's ok to cry because when God sends your "home-coming" angel we must say good bye! with Della parting this place, I can feel the void just as plain as can be, but I thank God he has set her "free" ...Della Mae my sister, my friend to the end, rest assure I will laugh with you again..

“ To my longest and dearest school friend, whom was the only friend that kept in touch with me since junior high school. I love you with all my heart even in death, I love your family and will miss you dearly Della I have no one to fuss at me anymore. Della always cared about other people instead of being into self. 2nd Corinthians 5:8 says To be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. To the family look to the hills which cometh our help, our help cometh from the Lord. May God Bless You All! Love Always Doreatha D. Swift & Family.
