I am saddend to her of the loss of your sister. I extend deepest and heartfelt sympathy to you and your family at this difficult time. I'm sure you are thankful for the many wonderful years you had together. I hope your faith will guide you during this challnging time. John 4:27 "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid." Rev 21:4 "He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away" The Sovereign Lord has spoken.

I know you will miss your sister. Remember, your sister is a soul mate who is a part of you forever. God Bless each of you.

“ To the Delphya Johnson family, I am so sorry to hear of the lost of your loved one. I can't imagine your pain and sadness. I pray that Jehovah God will comfort and support you all during this time of sorrow. God has promised to one day put an end to death forever, what a blessing that will be.-Isaiah 25:8. Jesus also showed what he will do in the future; he will resurrect those asleep in death, back to life on a paradise earth.John 11:20-25; Luke 23:43. Until that time comes, may Jehovah bless all of you.

“ Dear Johnson family,
I'm sorry for the loss of your loved one. I wanted to offer a few words of comfort during this most difficult time. Paul said at 1 Thess. 5:11 "keep comforting one another and building one another up". (2 Cor. 1:3-4) Jesus lovingly comforted mourning ones, bringing them encouragement and peace of mind. We all have an opportunity to see our loved ones again. John 5:28-29 states that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." How wonderful it will be to hug and kiss our loved ones again. I hope you find comfort from these scriptures.
