“ I remember DeMarco as a sweet little shy boy. Not a big talker, but would always give a shy smile when I looked his way. My next contact with DeMarco was when he was a young man. He had graduated from high school and was excited about going to college and living on campus. I was so happy that he had grown into a young man with dreams and plans for his future. I will remember my telephone calls with DeMarco and the excitement in his voice as he talked about starting a new chapter - and that is memory of him I will hold onto. Aunt Loretta

“ I really can't believe YOUR GONE... 3/12/23 was the day you marched you Auntie down the aisle to become a WIFE. Now on this same day 3/12/25 you gain your wings and took FLIGHT. You were 1 out the 3 pieces that still connect me to MY BROTHER (Terry) 5/03/96 your dad and MY MOTHER (Kathryn) 11/27/22..Marco we shared so many laughs and celebrated good times. I not just going to miss my nephew I going to miss my friend, my gaming buddy, my ride or die and my confidant. Although this day 3/12 suppose to be of happiness it will also be my pain because I lost you. Just know I will always love you and you will be missed wholeheartedly.
