“ I knew Dennis as a kind, generous neighbor, and friend. I was always glad to have Dennis visit me in my garden, always happy whenever he brought family members along for me to meet. He thought my garden was a peaceful place. I pray that Dennis is walking in a peaceful garden now.

I was pleased to know you Dennis, and I will miss you. Rest easy, friend.

My best thoughts go out to Regina, Tim, Tia, and extended family at this time.

“ To your Sisters, Regina, Tina and Sharon; Aunt Maria, your wife Vickie and most of all your children...Remembering is a journey I must again take. My heart takes me into a journey that was...my thoughts of him are the ticket I used to ride once I found out another son has made his transition. As the best friend of your mother, I watched all of you become fine adults. In the process, I watched her and two of my sons leave us here with broken hearts. My heart is heavy again, but I trust the Lord will ease my pain, he did it over and over before and my faith tells me he will again dry my tears and heal my broken heart. Please believe me He will do the same for you. He knows what we are going through and most of all He cares. Let's remember that beautiful smile Dennis always portrayed when he saw us and the wonders of his love for us and ours for him. We're going to miss Dennis but our sweet memories of him is the only ticket we need to complete this journey we must now take. I love all of you, and you too will be forever in my heart.
