“ Brother...to say I miss you is an understatement! I knew how much I loved you but I never realized just how much I NEEDED you until we no longer had you! Continue to watch over me and my babies- they still talk about Uncle Deonta. I be having to tell Deucey he Deonte Stowers, not Deonta Blackmon! lol! I wish heaven had a phone everyday! You finally got Granny all to yourself again :-) I'm so jealous, I would give my last breath to lay between the two of you and sleep the night away just one more time! I always think about how me, you, and Gran REALLY used to be knocked out in her bed lol...at least you grew up, I slept next to her every chance I got until shortly before the day she decided to go home with you. That's the ONLY thing that kept me while losing her, knowing that she would be so happy to finally hold you again. She missed you soooooo much! The pain showed EVERYDAY- that crushed her world as well as the rest of us. I could sit here and type to you all day....I'm sorry I haven't built the courage to come see you. That dirt is not you, the thought literally makes me sick....I love you Deonta. Until we meet again, I continue to mourn you!!!

“ *Dear Blackmon Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured , death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.*
