“ I was actually at the Sunset Hills/ River Rest cemetary office the day Deonta Perry's family was in the office making arrangements for his funeral; I was in search of my Godmother's grave site that day. I don't know bro Perry, but I still felt that it was necessary to pay my respect to him and the bereaving family that survived his death.

Once again to the family, I am sorry for the loss of this young, black man. I'm 28,so it hit me to know that another young male was taken at an early age. But all I can say is, let the Lord's Will be done.
