Mr. DeQuan Hodge Jr. was born November 24, 1989 in Flint, Michigan, the son of Laquindra Hodge and DeQuane Hodge Sr. Raised in a large family, Dequan grew close to his grandparents, god-parents, aunt and uncle, Gwen and Rufus, who also helped to raised him into the man he would soon become. His love for his mother was established early on. They grew an irreplaceable and unbreakable type of bond that allowed him to love and care for others throughout his life. He attended Flint Southwestern Academy where he wrestled and met his wife, Whitney. After developing a close friendship throughout high school they began dating in college. DeQuan decided to switch his career path and chose to complete a Pilot Certificate and then a Professional Driver's License. He later settled into a career as a Commercial Driver. DeQuan and Whitney married in 2015 after moving to Frisco, Texas and welcomed their son, Clarkstan in July of 2018. DeQuan was over joyed about being a father and spent his leisure time with his son, family, and friends. He was a well-rounded man, known for his great sense of style, love for shopping, and musical ability. DeQuan was a great role model and mentor always willing to listen and give advice; he was wise beyond his years. He possessed a gift to draw people near with his caring personality and delightful smile.
