“ I am so sorry for your loss. I did not know your loved one but by his tribute wall I can tell he was loved by many. Everyone had very nice and funny things to say about him. I would like to share and encouraging thought with you from God's word the bible. It is found at Mark chapter 5. The whole true life story is encouraging. And I would like to encourage you to read it. But at Mark 5:39-42 it says: and after stepping in, he(Jesus) said to them:"Why are you causing noisy confusion and weeping The young child has not died, but is sleeping." At this they began to laugh scornfully at him. But, having put them all out, he took along the young child's father and mother and those with him, and he went in where the young child was. And taking the hand of the young child, he said to her: "Talitha cumi," which, translated, means: "Maiden, I say to you, Get up!". And immediately the maiden rose and began walking for she was twelve years old, And at once they were beside themselves with great ecstasy. I always thought this account to be so comforting because it showed two things. One that to Jehovah and Jesus our dead loved ones are just sleeping. Only we can not wake them up from this sleep because it is too deep of a sleep. It also shows how Jesus dealt with death and bible times and how he will soon deal with it the same way in our day. I hope that this account has been comforting and brings you some peace in this terrible time. If you would like to know more I have left my e-mail address. Again I am deeply sorry for the loss of your loved one.

“ To the family: I would like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loss. I also took care of Bobo for over 4yrs and grew attached to him. Bobo was such a kindred spirit and Im honored to have had known him. I will ALWAYS remember his favorite things: diet coke and $! Before he got sick, the last outing we went on was the County Fair. He had a great time looking at the animals, providing he had his diet coke first. But the funniest thing that happened was when we went to the petting zoo. Bobo started feeding a baby goat when a Llama charged at him, just wanting food. It scared Bobo so much that he nearly fell down! He laughed so loud, but continued feeding the animals (but not that Llama). I think god puts people on this planet who can inspire others, no matter what obstacles you have to over come, and i believe thats why we were graced by Bobo! Rest in peace my friend. “ My family and I would like to send our condolences to the family of Mr Deravick Bobo. "Death is a sting," as the words of Hosea 13:14 tell us. We were not created to die, but to live. Soon our God will do away with death, what comfort can be found at Isaiah 25:8: "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." But what is the condition of the dead and will the dead live again? The answers to these questions can be found in your own copy of the bible. For further assistance please visit jw.org.
