“ I met Dewaun when we were just 15 years old in Mr. Bond's class at Northwestern. I was smitten by his intelligence. He was smart, a sharp dresser and very funny. We remained friends throughout high school graduation. I'll never forget Dewaun. He was one of a kind. My prayers and condolences are with the entire Bell family.

To the Bell family and particularly Vontae, his son. Although we will be unable to attend the going home celebration of your father, please know that our hearts grieve with you. We know he meant a lot to you because you often said so during your summer visit with us. We are all praying for you and your family. We are only a phone call away. Jay, E, and Granny
