“ I met Mrs. McKinney when Christopher was in the kindergarten. She was such a warm-spirited and friendly lady who smiled all the time. She was always a very supportive parent. I had the pleasure of talking to her on the phone last year when checking up on her granddaughter. Although we had been out of touch for several years, it was as if we had just seen one another recently because she was the same as I had remembered. We shared stories and laughs as we had in the past. It was great talking to her.
