“ To the Coopers, Don’s children, grandchildren, close friends, family and my Sister Benjoir,

I’d just met Don, Boo and her kids at a family gathering in the Poconos. Although I’d heard a lot about him and Boo and how cool they are and fun to be around; and I’d always known the some of the Coopers from visiting my Aunt Betty Jean. What I can say is that Don’s spirit was laid back, willing to help you where he could (he was a lifesaver of a mechanic that weekend) and considerate. He and Boo’s spirit as well as the kids, left such an impression that I looked forward to seeing them all again and kept in touch. I pray that God comforts you, lifts your spirits and keeps you, as you continue life’s journey without Don in the physical; but now in the spirit. Strong spirits don’t die, they live through us left behind. Rest in Power Don, with the source of all power! 🙌💕, Vudonzi Graham-Days
