“ Just wanted to say that I only knew Dirty for a short period of time but from what I did know about him he had a good soul. I remembered playing against him up at berston, he always kept me laughing. One day he referred to me as sis and I just tuirned and smiled. Ive only known Dirty for about a couple of months but that time I did know him was special. I will always keep him in my prayers. RIP Dirty D...Love Ya

“ I am sorry for the loss of Donnell. during difficult times I am comforted by a passage at Psalm 55 vs. 22, it assures us that if we throw our burdens on God he will sustain us. I hope this comforts you also.

“ I am sorry for the loss of Donnell Howard. No matter when a love one leaves they are gone too soon. His death is a great loss. Thus, while you mourn Donnell Howard's death, celebrate his rich life. You may feel paralyzed by a loss such as this. "Do not let your be troubled". (John 14:27) Remember, God can help you to endure any sadness. Even the strong may weep under the weight of grief. But, there is "a time to weep." (Ecclesiastes 3:4) Jesus wept when he lost his dear friend. His footprints will always be seen. The sands of time will not wash them away.
