“ To the Brown/Johnson family, I just want to say I am sorry about the lost and just know that God was ready for Donnie his work down here was done. I will always remember his smile which light up the room when he entered. Mother Johnson keep looking to the hill from which all your help comes from and when you think you are alone just know that God is standing by your side.

“ words can not express how it feels to lose a friend you just have to lean and depend on God he is the only one who can help you with this. i knew Donny for a long time and i always told him he had 9 lives. Evidently the Lord decided that he was tired of watching him here on earth and called him where he could keep a closer eye on him. For the family i will always remember the fun we all had when we were growing up. Just think about the good times and hold to God's Unchanging hand
