“ My contact with Donte was far too brief, but in that limited time he made a strong and lasting impression on me as a warm, kind, loving, and caring individual. He completed a family for my niece and her son in a way that "the whole was far greater than the sum of its parts". I am greatly saddened, as we all are, by his premature departure from this life.

“ Donte,

I will always remember the big smile you had on you face and your ability to make people laugh. My foundest memory of you is when we were in the same pottery class. Your sense of humor made that class a breeze not to mention you were the teachers pet. May you Rest In Peace my friend.

“ Dearest Sanders Family, I am hoping that u find true comfort at this time of loss...I am from the Flint area and whenever I hear of a death I am moved to share an encouraging expression from the Bible. Please take note of Rev.21:3,4 and also Ps.28:8...."God promises to be a strength to is people."
May you and your family find peace of heart and mind in God"s promise of no more sickness and death.

Sincerely,
Tasha Brooks
