“ I was really sadden when I heard of the passing of Ms. Dora. She and my Mom were very good friends. I would visit Ms. Dora periodically. I really enjoyed my visits with her. We always had lively conversations. She was a very nice, sweet lady. My Mom, will surely miss her friend. So will I. May God comfort and keep the family in his loving arms. My prayers are with each of you. May God bless you all.

“ My condolences go out to the family of Ms Dora Hodo. This must be a difficult time for you, understanding that someone that you loved passed away. God has provided us with a comforting promise and it involves us seeing our loved ones again. Revelation 21:4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ There are times like there when we need to draw strength from our heavenly father Jehovah (Psalms 83:18) He wants us to have a relationship with him so that he can help us get through hardships. His word help us at Revelation 21:4 it says, "He will wipe the tears from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning, outcry , nor pain be anymore the former things have passed away. This is one of the future promises that Jehovah has given us. Another loving future promise is found at John 5:28 where Jesus says, "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good thing to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgement. Jehovah the God of comfort has promised us these things so that we will have hope for our loved one who have passed away.
