“ i definitley do not know where to begin. i still can not believe it she was just at my house the other day. we had a long talk and we talked about our birthdays..all of us beating cancer. Coretta and family look to God, He is the only one who can help you. He is where your strength comes from. If there is anything that me and my family can do, do not hesitate to ask you know where i am. God bless you all.
