I will never forget the memories of her with her Grandson's and of her holding them for the first time. In California and Here in Colorado and in Michigan Her love and their love for her spanned miles and time. It was always in her smile and voice as we talked. I 'am am so thankful she Got to see and hold our Granddaughter Xexyla. Dorothy was a sweet and loving mother in law. I am thankful to her for the woman she helped me to become.
