“ Johnell and Family. . .

Please accept our deepest sympathies and sincerest condolences for the passing of your mother, Mrs. Dorothy Jean Allen. But, in your hour of bereavement, be assured in the knowledge and truth that we know because death is no enemy of man; it is a friend who, when the work of life is done, just cuts the cord that binds the human boat to earth, that it may sail on smoother seas. No language can describe a mother's worth, and yours was tried and true. But she was not called hence until her tasks were done. The calls of death are always for the best, for we are solving problems there as well as here; and one is sure to find himself where he can solve his problems best. It is but selfishness that makes one wish to call again to earth departed souls. Then let your mother rest in peace. Just let her noble life be strength and inspiration unto you.
