“ Moma I miss you so much. No, it has not gotten any easier for me or any of us. In fact it's much harder because every day that goes by, you're still not here. It's been 32 weeks since you left us and it is still so hard to accept. People tell me that it will get better with time but it hasn't. The holidays won't be the same ever again. I miss and love you so much moma.

Until I see you again

I Love You

Your Daughter

“ Moma,
This is the hardest thing that has ever happened to me. People told me that I would feel better in time. It's August and I'm still dying inside. I cry every single day. I pick up the phone to call you to tell you something that the kids just did, then I remember that you're not a phone call away anymore. I miss you so much moma, and I love you even more. My only comfort in this is knowing that I will see you again.

I love You,

Your Daughter

“ Aunt Jean meant so much to me. Aunt Jean was a part of our family. She was the one that was there. Extended that love and concerned care. She was a person that loved our family. Quiet, mild in her grace, when she spoke to me. She always liked to look you right in the face. Listening, waiting, to see what you have to say. Sometimes she'd agree, sometimes she would not. The important thing, she never forgot... "That she loved you" (knowing you loved her too) She would run, and help you, giving what she had. Advice, Time, and Love. Her beautiful gifts, she'd have. She was a remarkable person that really loved her family. Loved to cook for us on occasions, making us very happy. Yes, Aunt Jean knew, She understood.... That we, her family, Loved to eat good. (smiles) My Aunt Jean, She loved us all. She displayed this in many ways. She always looked forward to our family days. Her smile expressions, when someone in the family; Graduates from school, Getting married, New baby announcement, Family ReUnion planning. She took joy in all the things mentioned. My Aunt Jean.... She will be missed, Because her voice is silenced. But as her family... "We" must remain strong. United, even though her fleshly body is gone. In the thoughts of a final decision, we hope to see her again. We Trust in Our Father In Heaven. The love that my Aunt Jean had... It carries on through us. Let's continue together in the name of "Love" For our dear Aunt/Wife/Mother/Sister/Cousin/Friend, Dorothy Jean Blevins. "My Aunt"

“ Dorothy has left a legacy of love,giving and kindness.She was the best beautician I've ever had.
To the family-stand strong, firm, and trust in the lord. I know how much Dorothy loved you all,especially the grandchildren.
I will keep you in my prayers.
