“ Dear Grandmother in Law,
I was barely a blip on the family radar, when you shared my favorite memory of you. Tremayne & I were in for one of his infamous "quick stop visits" and you were at mom's (Beverly Tucker) house. You told the story of an eye Dr appointment...

You said they had claimed you were going blind in one eye. You didn't believe them, but decided to test it out. So, on your drive home, you covered your "good eye" & could barely see a thing. HAHAHA!!! So, you supposed they may have been right. Your grandson, and I, have shared that story, and the laughter; ever since. Like your story, you have also been; like a good medicine (Prov 17:22).
Thank you for all of your smiles, being "Great" to our daughter, and accepting me as your granddaughter. We will miss you here on earth, but our comfort is in our memories of you, believing you are pain free & living in Glory.
