“ My beautiful "GiGi", Although we hated to see you go, everyone that loved to be in your presence, knew that you were tired and ready to accept your well deserved wings. Although I had been ill and couldn't attend your Homecoming services, I'll never forget how kind you've always been to me, our Aretha Franklin t-shirts, and that coconut cake I'm still in love with.

Katie, Trina, .and families, you have my deepest condolences. "GiGi" was a true Gem. She will never be forgotten.

“ To the family of Dorothy Hawkins, I am so sorry for your loss. Dorothy was one special and fantastic person. She was always concerned about people and their well-being. Dorothy was very close to my sister Genevia Davis and the rest of our family. Dorothy, Genevia and I were on the Nurses Guild together at Macedonia church. I can not say enough about this lovely lady because she was one of a kind, very special. God bless the Hawkins family. Lottie Hairston - Mount Airy, N. C.

I had tried to get a direct flight to Detroit but the only one found was for Tues. the 5th So glad there will be streaming I will be there just not in person & it breaks my heart. Trina, Katie, all of you know I love you like my own. Lift one another up & may God comfort you all. Such a pretty picture of her. I'll have to put it on my wall. Aunt Betty

“ I am saddened to hear about my sister(by our choice) making her eternal transition. Some of our children grew up together and we bonded. Whenever we met it was with a smile, a genuine hug and a catch up. At the darkest time in my life, her and the girls were there. Special events at First Trinity, she was there and we greeted with the same smile and hug. Trina, Katie, and your brother, I will always love you too! I feel she would like that. You are in my prayers for the Lord's comfort and peace of mind.
