“ Even though we did not know your loved one personally, we are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Our condolences go out to you and your family. Often during difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that these verses are comforting to you.

“ Nette,

I know that no words can come even close to healing the pain that you feel. My heart goes out to you and your family in this difficult time.

Remember that you are not alone in this grievous journey. You have the support and strength of your family to get you through this.

Dorothy was my friend and me and my kids loved her and was devastated to hear that she had passed on.

May God comfort you in your time of need.

“ Dear family of Dorothy Sykes,I send my deepest sorrow. The pain you feel will lighten with time but her memory will stay. Please rest assured that she's in Jehovah God's memory as well. (Malachi 3:16)And like God did to his own son, Jesus, the Father will use Jesus to resurrect others. (John 5:28,29) Will Dorothy Sykes be one? According to the bible, most definitely! Mrs. Simp

“ I was so very sorry to hwear of Ms. Sykes passing. The bible offers us a hope for the future at Isaiah 33:24 where it says that there will be a time when "no resident will say I am sick" and at Revelation 21:3, 4 where it says that "death will be no more". Please read these scriptures at your convenience. I hope you will find comfort in them during this difficult time
