Duane generous spirit, smile, love for music and dance lit up a room. He enjoyed spending quality time with family and friends. One can often find Duane dancing and singing Karaoke, whenever the opportunity presented itself. One of his favorite phrases jokingly was, "Where the party at?" He was an avid football fan and loved watching old Western movies.

Duane was a committed father and friend. He exemplified an excellent work ethic and a love for life in spite of adversity. Even when he was faced with the health challenges of losing his legs several years ago, his desire to live his best life celebrating with his family and his love for the Lord was inspiring and a legacy for all who shared in his journey.

“ Rest in Peace. The First man I knew as "Daddy", The Only man I will ever give that title to. You may not have been my Dad by Blood; But for sure the only man I knew as my Dad. My most fondest memory of you is Kneeling with me every night as a child praying with me. You taught me What mostly mattered in life : PRAYER , LOVE , AND KINDNESS. You showed me love no matter what . The first person in life to say the words " I Love You " . Because of you Duane Morris Coulter I knew it was important to be a part of something. I grew up in church because of you and not to only go to church but to very much be activate in church. My special moments with you were when you would tell me how proud you were of me for learning my Easter speeches. I sang in St James choir because of you. You made me proud to say you were my Dad . I love you and rest in peace .....Xo Xo Xo thanks for the everlasting stamp you left in my Heart. I will never forget how you TREATED ME ....NOTHING BUT LOVE.
