“Daddy I was with you when you took your last breath, if only I could breath for you, you would have stayed. But god saw that you were ready and he took you from us to rest. Daddy, take your rest with God and the other relatives that have gone on before you. It is my prayer that you will watch over us till we meet again. To my step-mother thank you for all the loving care that you gave my father, we the children know that you did a great job and for that we love you much. I will miss my daddy, because he was first my daddy and second he was one of a kind with a heart of gold. There was nothing that he would not do for anybody. I will look to the hills from which my help comes from. Daddy knowing that I will be alright. Missing you soooooo much, your daughter, Missy
