Mrs. Wallace Stevens was Honorably Discharged from the United States Army.

E'deltress "Dell" Wallace-Stevens was born November 2, 1968 in Ferriday, Louisiana to the late Deloris Wallace and Joseph Fletcher. Dell grew up and spent her younger years in Flint, Michigan where she graduated from Flint Northern High School. Dell went on to attend and receive her Bachelors degree from the Detroit College of Business alongside her mother. Dell also served in the United States Army where she was honorably discharged.

Dell was a "Jane of Many Trades" as she enjoyed working and volunteering in many different areas of work between Flint, Detroit and Muskegon, MI. In her most recent role, Dell worked tirelessly in the custodial department at the Sloan Museum where she was most known for giving out endless hugs to both staff and patrons. Dell would often share that her biggest accomplishment was bringing her daughter, Stephanie, into the world. Dell was an active member of Word of Life Christian Church in Flint, Michigan and didn't hesitate to share the love that she had for her church family. For leisure, Dell enjoyed visiting family and friends, watching nostalgic movies, cooking for others, creating custom hairstyles, runs to the farmers' market, listening to "old school" music and making others laugh. Dell never met a stranger and was able to befriend anyone that she crossed paths with. On Sunday, October 5, Dell transitioned to her Heavenly home surrounded by loved ones at McLaren-Flint Hospital.

Dell was preceded in death by her parents; grandparents, James Wallace Sr, Dorothy Green, Benjamin Schiele, and Frozinia Fletcher; and brother, Landon Wallace.

E'deltress "Dell" Wallace-Stevens leaves to cherish her memories: her daughter, Stephanie Hare of Detroit, MI; four sisters, Mea Taylor (Gary) of Milwaukee, WI, Monica Potters and Zacki Cummings (Cleothis), all of Ferriday, LA, and Senika Perry of Flint, MI; three brothers, Alvin (Sheila) Wallace of Flint, MI, Reginald Murphy and Patrick (Melissa) Murphy of Ferriday, LA; one best friend, Elna Faye Amos of Flint, MI; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, church family and friends.

Dell's heart was always for people, community, hugs, family and lifting someone's spirit. Now you get to enjoy the glory of the City of the Living God.
