“ Several years ago I was blessed enough to have met Earl and his family. We all had our differences but over time we grew together and they became my family too.

Earl and I had our share of good and bad times, but no matter what happened we always remained friends and still had the love that we started with all those many years ago.

Although he is gone our love remains... in me.

One day by the grace of GOD we will meet again, but until then goodnight my friend.

I love you.
