He was the fifth child of twelve. Since the fifties, Mr. Marsh has been a resident of the Flint, Michigan area. He married his wife, Mrs. Annette Royal Marsh of fifty-seven years and they have five children, four daughters and one son from this union. He was regarded as a self-taught man, but he wasn't shy about enrolling in courses concerning various trades of interest. Mr. Earl Marsh was an industrious worker and gifted with several vocational talents and hobbies such as auto mechanics, body work, handyman, gardening, and a bee keeper. Mr. Marsh was often admired from various members of the community for his hard work ethic and his ability to manage his finances. As you well know Earl loved to work and if you stopped by he would often put you to work as well. Mr. Marsh retired from Flint Truck & Bus, a division of General Motors, after being employed there for 38 years.
