“ Uncle Eddie was one of a kind. It was obvious when he came around that he loved spending time with his extended family. The domino matches will never be the same.

We all were grieved when Uncle was first diagnosed with cancer, mostly because he had not made that crucial decision to accept Jesus as his Savior. On May 15th when he did so, it relieved those of us who know that life does not end in a grave. We will see Uncle Eddie again now. It is a witness to God's love that He allows us opportunity even on our death bed to enter into eternal life with him. I am so glad that heaven will now include the gift of Eddie Sweeney. Aunt Loretta we will continue to pray for your strength and healing. When you need us, call us. We love you.

“ I called him my Uncle Sweeney! There were many days that I played cards, dominoes and talked trash with him and my father, John. I can not begin to count the number of arguments that I had to break up between Uncle Sweeney and my dad. I will miss you both. I will never forget you! Uncle Sweeney, don't be up in heaven carrying on with my Dad, because God will be watching the two of you closely.

“ Thank God for his Mercy and Grace. It is appointed unto man once to die and after that the judgement. The most important decision was made by Uncle Eddie and I know that mama (Leola Sweeney Brooks) rejoiced when she heard the news. Aunt Loretta, just know that I love you, support you and my prayers are with you and your family.

“ To the family: I hadn't seen Mr. Eddie in a very, very long time. Didn't know he was sick, but glad to know he's healed! I miss seeing him smile and run (walk fast), talk loud like my dad used to and get in his El-dog back in the 70's. He was a true friend and neighbor. My prayers are with you always!
