“ Very beautiful woman. Never seen her when she was not smiling, and I have been a part of her life since before kindergarden. Very lovely woman. Your presence will surely be missed.

I am sure that is more than safe to say, for the entire Arnold Family, that we love you and will miss you dearly.

“ Byron & Michael, I am so sorry for your loss. I've always thought of Ms. Faye as a second grandmother. When I think of her, I think of her warm smile and loving spirit. She was an absolute sweetheart. I'm thankful to have known such a wonderful woman. May God provide you strength to face these difficult times, and know that you all are kept in every thought and prayer.

“ Even though we did not know your loved one personally, we are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Our condolences go out to you and your family. Often during difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that these verses are comforting to you.
