“ I loved her greatly. She was a wonderful lady and will be greatly missed.
If you need me come and see me.

Amanda Barton - August 10, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Elaine was and will always be the greatest shining light in my life as a child. Elaine was everything I wanted to be and thought I could never achieve. She was not the skin she lived in but the spirit only she would embodied. Elaine followed her own rules, created her own path; she lived "her" life and would never allow anyone else to take precedence over what she knew to be real. She was the mother I did not have as a child and created for me the foundation I stand on today. Elaine, you will always be in my heart.

“ *She sings of a land so pure,
So happy and care free,
She begins to walk across the room,
And tries to comfort me.*

*As the darkness sets,
Enclosing me in wings,
A fallen angel looks at me,
With sorrow as she sings.*
