“ What can be said about an Uncle who did double round trips, to pick us up from the other side of town, to ensure we went to dance classes on HIS side of town? In all my 35 years, I've never seen him in nothing but good spirits; family oriented and selfless my Uncle has made his transition. Please pray for my family. ❤️ RIP Uncle Elbert.

“ Elbert was my brother in law but was more of a brother to me and I loved him as my brother. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. I remember the bar b que, him listening to his blues and the Friday after work he would have me wash and braid his hair. One of the kindest, warm hearted people you would ever meet. Love you brother! Praying for comfort for the family and that each would look to Christ for strength. John 14:1 Trust in God!
