“ Words can never replace the pain of losing a loved one. Our prayers with much sentiment to the entire family. Elijah was always very respectful whenever we talked to him. He and our grandson were very good childhood friends. He would always encourage him when he came to town. He will be missed. 🙏

“ Our condolences to the Roland family for their loss. Elijah and I met at Chuckie Cheese . He was a hard worker, kind, and considerate person. Who took his job serious. He was a professional young man in every thing he did.

Took pride in his job and handled the kids with kid gloves. We adored him so much. One day we talked about family and I learned that his aunt Renee was my sister-in-law. Things began to add up. He had come from good stoke. We talked about the Bible at great length. We loved that young man. He will be truly missed.
