“ I was saddened to learn of Mrs. Bridgewater's passing. She and my mother-in-law, the late Gladys Young were great friends. She was like an aunt to my late wife Dorothy and her brother Jack. I remember her as a sweet lady who enjoyed visiting Saginaw and bringing gifts to all our children.

Please know family that you are in our thoughts and prayers.

God's best to you,

“ To the family of Mrs. Bridgewater I send my deepest sympathy. Her life was long but not long enough to Jesus. That's why he said that he would call and those sleeping in death would answer. (John 5:28,29) His Father, Jehovah (Exodus 6:3) will tell him when. Then Joy will abound on the earth! (Psalms 37:11,29) Your sister in the Faith, Joyce

“ Dear Bridgewater family,
I'm sorry about your loss. I know this is a tough time for you but one scripture that might bring comfort is found in Isaiah 33:24 which states, "And no resident will say I am sick." Jehovah God promises that soon he will end sickness & death. I hope this will bring comfort to your family.
