“ *Ms. Holloway will be deeply missed by everyone who has known her. Her smile alone could bright up a room and her sense of humor would always let you know that somehow everything will be alright. Now when I think about her I think about all of the wild conversations she and I would have that would always make me laugh and want to know more details while doing her hair, most of all watching the Tina Turner movie again. I am going to miss you Ms. Holloway with my whole heart. Marion stay strong in the Lord and he will see you through.
