“ Dear Mr. Powell, I was so disappointed to just now hear about Sister Powell's passing. She and my mother, Stella Beasley, were friends. I hope you are comforted when you think back on how spirited she was and also knowing that God remembers and rewards those faithful to him with a resurrection. (John 5:28,29)

“ It was a pleasure knowing Mrs. Elizabeth for a short time. I am confident that the God she knew to love and serve for so many years was excited to accept her by his side. I pray he continues to comfort you'll in this hard time. Understand that earth has not sorrow that heaven can not bear. I will continue to pray for you'll.

Love Andrea

“ I've known the Powell Family all my life. Mrs. Powell was a wonderful woman she loved the Lord took care of her family and had one of the cleanest houses with all those children i've ever seen. I was speaking with her and Brenda in the Summer and enjoyed our talk it was a good one My prayers are with you all. But please have the comfort of knowing that Mrs. Powell is in Heaven

“ I will miss you very much granny. You have always been there for me. The most impressive moments of my life you were there. Even when I found God you were there. I can't imagine continuing this without you, but I know with the grace of God I will be able to do it. I will always remember the beautiful moments we shared together. I will remember it forever. I know that you are with God and you told me not to worry about anything that everything happens for a reason. I love you very much. The most incredible memory I have is when you showed me how to pray and seek God. Now I rely on this (prayer) to get me through this. I will see you again, I pray until we see each other again. My prayer is that I will see you and God in peace. Love forever TRINA.
