She was born December 29, 1930 in Halifax County, Enfield, North Carolina to the late Emmanuel and Nettie Richardson (Lynch). She married her love, Charles William Evans in 1948 and later relocated to Flint, Michigan in 1954. To this union, there was one child.

Ella united with Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church in 1956, where she served on the Usher Board. She later transferred her membership to Saints of God Church in 2011. Ella would attend church regularly until her health began to fail. Ella loved to sew. She would make clothing, quilts and home décor. She loved gardening and canning her own vegetables in her younger years. She was a baker and still to this day would brag that her coconut cake was better than anyone's. She was an awesome cook making everything from scratch. She along with her late husband loved pets. Down to her last days, she made sure to request that she wanted to see her beloved Pomeranian, "Cam Bear". She loved and cherished her family and her family gatherings. Her home was always opened to friends and family and when she opened her home it always came with a meal. She was more like a sibling to the Evans Family, as they always lovingly referred to her as "Sis Ree". Ella was a loving and devoted daughter, sister, wife, mother, aunt and friend.

Mrs. Evans leaves to cherish sweet memories: one daughter, Sarita R. Evans-Marble and her husband Jeron A. Marble; 2 grandchildren, Phoenix K. Marble and Jeron A. Marble Jr. all of Dimondale, Michigan; 8 nieces; 1 nephew she held near and dear to her heart; 2 sisters-in-law; 4 brothers-in-laws; a host of many more nieces, nephews and cousins near and far.
