Our beloved Mother Ella Louise Jackson was born September 21, 1940 in Tulsa, Oklahoma and moved to her heavenly home on August 14, 2020.

Mother Jackson was a graduate of Flint Northern High School and attended Mott Community College. She married her High School sweetheart, Thomas W. Jackson in 1961. They celebrated 48 years of Holy Matrimony until he went to his heavenly home in 2009. She retired from Hurley Medical Center after 30 years of diligent service helping patients as a Senior Nursing Assistant.

Mother Jackson was a dedicated member of Mount Olive Missionary Baptist Church for nearly 50 years. She served faithfully as a leader in Youth Fellowship, Hannah Mission Circle, Mother's Ministry, and Pastor's Aide.

Mother Jackson loved the Word of God and was an enthusiastic member of Bible Training Union, Ada Berry Bible Study, and Sunday School.

Mother Jackson loved to learn new things! She studied photography and documented every family occasion with photos. Mother Jackson was an African American History buff and documented her family's history back to her fourth great-grandfather, Cow Tom. She loved to travel and was a member of the First Class Travel Club. Mother Jackson traveled to Australia, Bahamas, Belize, Canada, Costa Rica, France, Italy, Jamaica, Mexico, Panama, Spain and dreamed of going to Africa.

Mother Jackson was well-known as a kind and loving person who was full of joy. She loved to laugh and spend time with family and friends. Mother Jackson made every occasion a celebration. She mentored many young people at Mount Olive and touched many lives with the love of Christ. Mother Jackson was recognized in 2014 with a Children's Champion Award by the Priority Children's Organization for her many years of volunteer work with Flint's youth. She was loved by everyone she encountered because she loved God and she loved people.

Mother Ella Louise Jackson leaves to cherish her memory: daughters, Debra Jackson, Racene Ordu and Kelene Jackson; sons, Michael Jackson, Sr. and Randy Jackson; grandsons, Michael Jackson, Jr. and Alex Ordu; granddaughters, Zoe Jackson and Lee Jackson; brothers, George Wooten and James Wooten; sisters-in-law, Lillian Houston, Maxine Tornes, Margaret Jackson, Dorothy Payton, Betty Tipper and Jean Wooten; a host of beloved nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Mother Jackson was preceded in death by her husband, Thomas W. Jackson; mother, Marie G. Wooten; father, Isaac Williams; beloved grandparents, George and Minnie Grayson.

The family would like to express special thanks to the Mount Olive Missionary Baptist Church family, Pastor Jevon Catlett, Rev. Ronald Wilson, Angela Burns, Dr. Paul and Theresa Musson, The Medical Team Home Hospice, Hurley Medical Center and Achieve Home Health Care.

“ I first met Ella Jackson when she offered to help with our new Griefshare ministry. It was pretty overwhelming in the beginning but I knew I could always count on Ella.

She was always there with her beautiful smile and her kind loving spirit. Her dedication and support were such a wonderful blessing. She happily pitched in whenever and wherever she was needed.

It made my job so much easier. I was free to focus on facilitating the sessions because I knew Ella would make sure everyone was signed in and had what they needed.

I will miss Ella so much but I know she is where belongs.

In fact, I'm sure Ella, our precious angel, is busy in heaven right now; diligently working, with a beautiful smile on her face.
