“ Eloise and I (and about 6 others) shared a relationship that was so close that we called her "Mom". I cannot remember a time that she wasn't there for us. We loved her and will miss her so much. But we all find comfort in knowing that she is free from pain and reunited with her family members. She was loving, caring, nurturing, generous to a fault and so funny. I will miss her so much. I am praying for her family as they will miss her more. Rest in Heaven in Sweet Peace Mom. I hope to see you again someday. ”

“ Pam, I pray that God grant you and your family all the strength that's needed when you lose someone so very very special to you as a mother, What I can say is what a friend we had " when it come to our mothers" Mothers can't be replaced that is why I tell people to do what you can why you can and in the end you wont have no regrets Life seems so long but when you really look at it, its not long at all we are just passing through. So just cherish the memories of your mom she was such a beautiful lady! Love you forever, Kaye Gould

“ *My Dear Aunt Elouise,
You have always been a very special Aunt to me. Your smile, laugh, and love you have shown me will always be in my heart. As a young child, I watched your style and always and admired your taste in clothing, your hospitality, and the love you gave to your family. Our family had many get togethers in Flint and Chicago. Family gatherings were always special because you, my mom, Alversia, Vivian, and Aunt Madie would cook great food, laugh, dance, and show your love for all of us. You gave me a gold bracelet when I was young that was so shiny and glittery that I cherished. You always encouraged me to be successful. You were such a giving and loving Aunt. I will miss you very much but I know you are in Gods arms and at peace. Please tell my mom hello and I know you all will have good time on heaven. Love you Aunt Elouise and love to my family.
Love,
Brenda*

“ If there is one thing about my Auntie that I am influenced by, is her appreciation for fashion. What can I say; this woman was known for her classy and sassy attire. She had incredible style! I will miss her laughter, and joking with her during our conversations. She had a sense of humor. Despite of my moving from Flint to other cities, we kept in touch. She would make me laugh so hard, I would nearly burst my "gut". I have known her all of my life. This woman Eloise, affectionately known to me as "Auntie", will never be forgotten. I can remember as far back as Avenue A Street, when visiting my cousins Pam and Joyce; she would always welcome me and my brother Perrie with Honeymade Graham Crackers. She knew how much we loved them. My Auntie could also cook meals that taste so good, you couldn't stop eating. She could cook a mean pot of greens. I know of no one who could cook a pot of flavorful greens like she could. They were so good; I would sometimes eat them cold. That is deep! She and my mom Vivian were like sisters, they would get together and laugh so hard that they were nearly in tears. My mom, Auntie Vera and Versa would gather around the table when they got together and have a grand old time. I hate that I never engaged in an evening of playing Aces Duce's with she and my cousins. As I write these brief memories, I am moved to tears. I'm not a softy; I'm just a sensitive and loving woman who loves her family. Rest in Peace Auntie. Tell all of those in our family who we love, and have moved on to a new neighborhood to be with God, we are all doing what's necessary to keep our spirits high and continue living, despite how challenging it may be at times. I am hopeful, after all is said and done, we will all be together again in spirit, as a united family.

I love you,

Tracey

“ *When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little—but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me—but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss Me—But Let me Go.*

*Pam my prayers are with you and your family.
