Ms. Emma Chilton was born May 9, 1935 in Brownsville, Tennessee to Henry and Hattie Chilton. Emma relocated to Flint, Michigan at an early age with her family. Emma attended Flint Northern High School where she excelled in Music and the Performing Arts. As a self-taught pianist she honed her craft while attending Julliard School of Music. While there she received the Opera Guild Award for Vocal Achievement.

As a loyal member of Quinn Chapel A.M.E. Church, Emma directed various choirs and served as a musician for more than twenty years. Throughout her career she received countless awards for her contributions. She actively served as a musician at Canaan Baptist Church, Christ the Liberator Presbyterian Church and Antioch Missionary Baptist Church.

Ms. Emma was a dedicated employee for several of Flint's prominent black doctors. Her service to others, coupled with her love and compassion was her gift to the world. She dedicated her life to her beloved daughter and grandchildren. Anyone who knew her knew her genuine love for her granddaughters. At any given moment she was ready and willing to share their accomplishments. Emma was very proud of them and they truly loved their "Nana". She will be most missed for her beautiful voice, sweet smile, and loving spirit.

Ms. Emma Chilton leaves to cherish her memory: daughter, Lucretia Davis of Flint, Michigan; 2 granddaughters, Rameka Davis of Birmingham, AL and Mia Alexander Davis of Upper Marlboro, MD; 1 great-grandchild, Harper Wesley Miles Alexander; oldest living sister, Bessie Green; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Sister Chilton was Music Director for The Angel Choir at Cannan Baptist Church. I must have been in 4th grade when I started singing and it was A Fun Experience. Sister Chilton was gracious with us and those Songs were very age appropriate.. Cannan had Several Choirs so when we got Our Turn..We were prepared. My Prayer for Family and Friends is to Remember The Faithfulness of Sister Chilton and the long life God gave her. Elder Keith Jones , Spokane, Wa.
