“ Mr. March was a wonderful man. I didn't know him personally, he has been one of my customers from Rite Aid pharmacy in 1996 until before his death at Clio Road Pharmacy. He was always very pleasant and a joy to serve. Every single year for I'm going to say at least the last 15-16 years he has stopped by at Christmas to give me money. I don't know why but he did. I was a single mom, he didn't know that (God knew) and there were times that money put dinner on the table. Thank you Mr. March for being a blessing to me and my boys. To the family you have my condolences and I pray God's peace and comfort be with you. He will be missed.

“ To the family of Emmitt March, be encouraged. Your family history is rich in love, compassion and helpfulness. My family lived directly across the street from the March family quite a few years back, we all lived on Vermont street and it was like the street was our own village of families and children. Mrs March(your Grandmother) was always there to help my mom with us children, Aunt Reola was our first sitter. It was Charles and Regina(Reola's daughter) who walked me to school those first years of elementary school. Charles would always wrestle with me and tell me to put my dukes up like this or that. Emmitt, Levi and Stevella were always there also for anything we needed.

Emmitt was cool, smooth and always drove a Cadillac back then and always gave us kids in the neighborhood a dollar or 50 cents. I remember when I came from the Army in 1976, both Mrs March and my Mom Ms Housley ran to me and hugged me with so much joy. But Emmitt was the man, he married my mom back in 2003 and even in the short time that it was to be I was so proud of him and would always tell him you my dad. He and I both were happy to see one another when I visited him last year in June and true to his nature when I got ready to leave he slapped a Benjamin into my hand and just said be safe. Emmitt March, I remember you, Be encouraged family, your uncle was a good man, to each of you be strong and be a strong family together, share as much love, laughter, dinners and happiness together as you can.
