“ God's rest to you, Enix... I met you when I was a youngster on the G-Block/Genesee St. We always felt safe on our street because, Officer "Pops" Ridley and his partners stay on our street at the Adams family home. Those were the days when neighborhoods had love, & respect, and fellowship with our city police force. I really missed thoes days, after you all had went on to different calling in your life. Well, you were a serious man on & off your job.. Even after you had, retired, I thought you were still on the job 😂 a "true police" leader. Rest in peace, Sir Officer Enix Wright, Job well done. On behalf of thoes of us, that still remember the good old's days on Genesee St, my love and sincere prayers for your family. ❤️🙏🙏🙏

“ Enix was my first real boss at the FPD and I learned so many things about being a good street cop from him, many that probably kept me alive. He also showed me how to be a supervisor people wanted to work for. I will forever be grateful. May his memory be eternal.
