“ I was blessed to have had Eric in my class in kindergarten and in fourth grade. When he got older, he came back to visit and to help me with our fourth grade play. This young man was intelligent, creative, articulate, talented, well-mannered, and such a joy to teach. My heart is heavy, and I extend my deepest sympathies to his family.

“ For the short time I spent with Eric, I thought he was a remarkable young man, way beyond the years of his age. I enjoyed listening to him play the organ. Its sad when we lose someone so young, but it's really difficult when we lose such a God fearing young man to whom so much talent was given, and being used in a positive way. We have truly lost a bright person for our present and future. My prayer goes out to Pastor and First Lady Marks, all the families and friends of Eric Junior
