Mr. Eric DeShawn Richardson-Milton more affectionately known as “Rack Up Rack” was born March 23, 1995, at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, Michigan, the son of Derek L. Milton and Cleona P. Nocella. He was a resident of Flint, Michigan where he was employed at Flatrock Manor in Flint Twp., MI. Eric had a smile that could light up any room. Anything anyone needed, Eric made sure they got it. He loved his kids and music. Kids were Eric’s everything. If you knew Eric, you could catch him talking on the phone with his family or at a studio; recording his pain felt music or at his momma, Bertha’s house cracking jokes. Eric loved Sunday’s, that was our love day where he would make the biggest plate of his favorites, sweet potatoes, mac-n-cheese, dressing, cabbage, fried chicken and anything else that could fit. During his free time outside of work and the studio he loved to have fun and spend quality time with his kids and family. To have known Eric is to love him. Know matter what life threw at Eric, he never gave up and always figured it out. Nothing was too big or too small; he conquered it all.

“ My cousin was always smiling, never had a bad word to say about anyone! I will always remember the childhood memories all of us cousins share, the fun time, the times of struggle and the times of growth. This a hard pill to swallow because you didn't deserve this but we will hold each other up in honor of you! We will forever hold dear your legacy within your children and your music! May god grant you peace, may you find the ultimate comfort in heaven, I pray your rest easy in the name of Jesus!
