“ I am still in shock. My prayers are with you all. I remember when she was little; she ran around the church with my daughter. We are not to question why God does what he does but I am blessed to have been able to meet Ericka and watch her grown up and become the nice young lady she had become. I love you all and you all have my most deepest condolences. God Bless.

“ To the family of Erika Jamison,

Although I did not know Erika personally, I was deeply saddened to see someone so young pass away. Wouldn't you agree that this world is full of so much sadness and heartache? So many people want to know WHY there is so much suffering, and why God has allowed these bad things to occur. James 1:13 says this: " When under trial, let no one say, I am being tried by God. For with evil things God cannot be tried nor does he himself try anyone. " Rest assured that God is not the cause of your loss. He is the " God of comfort" and wants us to put our trust in Him when we face situations like this. He is going to put a stop to all of our suffering very soon by means of His Kingdom. We have another promise that lies ahead: the resurrection. Acts 24: 15 tells us "that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Would'nt you do anything in your power to have an opportunity to see Erika again? God's word tells us that we need to take in knowledge of Him and His son Jesus Christ. I strongly suggest that you contact your local Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses and request a free home Bible study. A qualified minister will be able to assist you in receiving truly lifesaving knowledge, an opportunity to draw closer to God and a wonderful hope for the future.

Deepest sympathy,

“ To the Jamison Family,

Glory to God! He understands and knows the struggle when we go to him in prayer for the lose of our most precious gifts (our children). Words are unspeakable, but the holy spirit makes intercession for us. A beautiful young lady God used for his service and Glory as an usher, praise dancer, and her faithfulness in Sunday school. Erika will be missed dearly & my prayers are with you and God will wipe away all tears.

“ It's so sad to hear about people so young in the obituary. My condolences to the family. A scripture that may comfort your heart is at psalms chapter 34 verse 18-it says " God is near to those that are brokenhearted, and those who are crushed in spirit He saves." I hope that His comfort will one day bring you peace. Again, I'm sorry for your loss.
