“ Auntie, we will miss you. You are the last one of the silbing, to leave have a happy reunion with all your family, when it comes to your family before any of us came alone, is now complete. Those of us who are left behind have to do what you have done. My wish is that we make it someday. Hearts are broken we will mend in the days ahead, the best part is knowing that we your family have so many up their looking out for us, auntie tell my daddy, mamma and all the rest of the family hellow. Auntie, rest in the arms of your Heavenly Father.
