“ I am surely missing you Momma,

All the long talks we had everyday, several times a day. Me calling you asking what happened on The Young and the Restless? What happened on the Bold and the Beautiful?, What happened on The Haves and The Have Nots? Momma, did you see that man on The Price Right? He missed it by $250! Seeing what you want to eat today and how you feeling today. I am surely missing you Momma. Thank you for raising me to be the strong independent that You always were, and the strongest that I have ever known.

Love Always,

Your Daughter,

Ms. Tonya Brown

“ We the Randolph and Witcher families send our deepest condolences to the entire Brown and Carlisle families. I was just reminiscing about when I use to walk to VanWag... to see my friends and Lord knows to get out of the house. Mrs. Erma would greet you kindly and let us go hang out on the porch... lolololol and definitely remind me when it was time to go home.....

May the words of God grant you peace when the words of men can not.
