“ I had the honor of being one of Ms. Erma's caregivers in CCU; We shared many laughs and bonded through conversations -just last week-end. I am deeply saddened at her passing. God does not make mistakes and even though it may be difficult to lose someone we love; we must go on, in the way they would have us go. Remember the good times and live your life-honoring the legacy she left behind. May God continue to strengthen and bless you all..Annette Miller

“ *Erma Welch
I want to share a memory of the kind of woman I found Ms. Welch to be. My daughter was a candy stripe volunteer (Jessica Welch) at Hurley hospital where Ms. Erma worked and as a single mother we fell onto some hard financial times and Ms. Erma put forth the efforts to adopt my family for Christmas with her co-workers and as a single mother with two kids. That had no income I cannot tell you how thankful my family was for the lovely soul that entered our lives.
My thoughts are with her loved ones.....and I wanted them to know her beauty far reached people they didn't know... Please note that we are not blood related by my Name, but I would have been proud to have her as my blood family.
