“Jr., Love you and thinking about you during this difficult time. Aunt Stein was such a sweet and classy woman. I am so proud to have had her as my aunt. All of you Holts were always so wonderful to my family when we would come for family visits when we were children. It really was such a wonderful time. As my fathers only sister she was very special to him and at times would say to me. "Your know, at times you remind me of your Aunt Ernestine, your know, the way you walk and some of your mannerism." All my love to you, Darlene and the children. We loved your mom very much and she was a great example to me and held the banner well of that wonderful standard of kindness, dignity and self confidence passed down from Grandma and Grandpa Brown.

Much Love,

Sandy

“ You love me like I was one of your own children which makes me feel like one of the luckiest person in the world. You have been a therapist, a friend and a mother. You give the best gifts of love. I know love has nothing to do with the material but I am astonished by the thought behind each and everything. You see my children's strengths and all of their gifts. Not to say that they don't each have their faults, but what a hopeful world it is to just look for the good. That in itself is a gift of yours. I hope that I do half as good a job as what you have done for me. That would be the ultimate success. I know it is an honor to call you mom. Thank you for everything. You will always be more than I could hope for. I will always love you, Darlene!

“ To the Holt Family:

I was sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. Death is liken to a thief that comes and takes away our love ones. Or due to old age and sickness we lose that precious gift of life that leads to death.

However, have you ever asked: Is death the end of it all? Or is there something else after death? The bible clears up any question we might have about death. It also shows that there is a real hope for persons who have faith.

*Yours truly,
Patricia*
