“ In life there are those rare instances when you meet someone and become instantly drawn to them. The kind of person that glows with love, affection, and kindness. If you are lucky, they feel the same way about you. In the relatively short time I was given to meet and know Ernestine, I grew to love her, because she was one of these people. Our office will not be the same without your regular visits. My heart will ache when I think that I will no longer see your name on my schedule. But my memories will keep you close and forever as my honorary mama :-)

Love to the family. May strength in your thoughts, memories, and prayers guide you to peace.
